ON TRIAL FOR MATRICIDE

Keaka Naiwi was placed in the dock yesterday to be tried before Judge Stauley for manslaughter in the first degree. He is accused of beating his mother so as to cause her death. E. P. Dole and A. L. C. Atkinson prosecute, and J. T. De Bolt defends the prisoner. It was not until close to recess this noon that a jury was obtained, some time having been consumed with other matters and a demurrer in this case. The Chronicle of the 25th says: General Merriam hopes to start some of the First New York Regiment to Honolulu this week, and the Humboldt, it is understood, will carry a few hundred. Colonel Barber will accompany them if he is recovered from his indisposition, but General Merriam does not expect to be able to go for a fortnight or more, as he has the care of the expedition. He has tried to obtain more assistance in the way of aids and staff officers from Washington, but has not succeeded.

Squads of volunteers from the Rio de Janeiro were practicing the setting up exercises in the vicinity of the fishmarket this morning. The peculiar movements of some were food for laughter in more than one quarter.

There were seventy-five deaths during July. This is the largest number for any July back as far as 1893. Seven died from typhoid fever, seven from old age and six each from fever, heart disease and consumption. The remainder is divided between twenty-six other diseases.

A SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

Touching Letter Received from Mother of Private Fisk.

The following touching letter from the mother of Private Fisk, who died in the Red Cross hospital, was received by G. H. Gere by the last steamer. The pictures referred to were taken by Vida Thrum:

ADAMS, July 19, 1898.

Mr. G. H. Gere:
Kind Sir—Your highly esteemed letter of July 8th was received today. I cannot express my thanks to you (and to many others) for remembering to tell me of my son's death and burial, and for the kindness and care given him by the many, and the thoughtfulness in taking and sending me the pictures. No one will know how much I prize them.

And how I wish I could tell each one of my thankfulness. Harry was my all; just he and I. He my only hope on earth is no more, for surely it was he that the Lord has taken home to join the two little sisters gone before. Harry my first the last to go; can I say the Lord's will be done?

The ladies of the Red Cross have my thanks. This seems poor pay, but they will receive their reward. In time I will write to each one.

Next Sunday we have memorial services for Harry. You asked if you could be of service. Could you get a death certificate from the physician who attended Harry? If you can, please do. Harry, while at Lincoln, joined the Modern Woodman lodge, and had one thousand dollars life insurance made to me. I knew nothing of it until he gave me the papers. He wanted me to have it, so, as I need it so much, and it was his wish, I will try to get it. If there are any expenses please let me know. I will gladly pay them, and be so thankful to you.

Yours very respectfully,
MRS. NETTIE M. FISK.

GOOD BLOOD

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain. Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep; you are as tired in the morning as at night; you have no nerve power; your food does not seem to do you much good. Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you: but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

For Miltionness take AYER'S PILLS. They promptly relieve and surely cure. Take them with Ayer's Sarsaparilla: one aids the other.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SOCIAL.

At only a day's notice the ladies of the Christian church gave a very joyous social at the chapel last night. Boys in blue present were cordially invited by Pastor Garvin to come and bring each one or more comrades. They could be welcome to the full capacity of the fine building. And they came to the number of forty or fifty, and the welcome they received was such that, at the close, many of them lingered struggling to find words to express their appreciation of the kindness of these friends in particular and the people of Honolulu in general.

Charles E. Rice presided with cheerfulness and witful tact, proving himself an ideal master of ceremonies. Pastor Garvin asked a blessing on the gathering and invoked especially the welfare of the soldiers going forth to serve their country.

Louise Boardman gave the recitation that won her universal praise at the recent charity concert given by the High school. "Judge" Grommet, of Co. K, 14th Infantry U. S. A., was honored for a humorous recitation. He is a graduate of the Kansas Normal College and a lawyer. Arnold recited "Down by the Rio Grande," and responded to a later call.

Rev. W. K. Azbil, a visiting missionary of the Christian church in Japan, sang the Japanese national anthem in the vernacular. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Fukao, a native Japanese who comes to engage in the mission work among his countrymen instituted by Miss Beard in Kona, Hawaii. This gentleman made a happy little speech in English and sang a Japanese hymn.

Miss Azbil told the story of the "Japanese Mirror" in a very engaging manner. W. C. Weedon gave a recitation. Alex. W. Wallace, of Troop F, 4th Cavalry U. S. A., was recalled again and again for ventriloquical imitations of animal and mechanical sounds. Last time of call gave an excellent song. Several other boys in blue contributed songs and recitations.

A great feature was the singing of "America" by the whole company at the beginning, the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" near the close and the Christian Endeavor hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," as the farewell number. It was noticed that a large proportion of the soldiers sang the last mentioned hymn as if they had "been there before."

In the midst of the exercises the ladies produced various lemonades good and rich with a bounteous supply of cake in endless variety. It was remarked by smacking lips that the beverages were away above the conventional standard of church fair lemonade. At all events, thirty gallons of three or four different brews had been dispensed before the lights went out.

Etmer H. Oliphant, of Co. M, 1st South Dakota Volunteers, desired the BULLETIN reporter, on behalf of himself and all his comrades in blue, to return the most cordial thanks to the church people for the entertainment.
